Bellissimo Foods Expands Distribution to Mexico

December 27, 2006 – Bellissimo Foods Company, LLC announced today that Nascent Wine Company, Inc. has joined as an International member for the country of Mexico. Nascent, a publicly traded company, is a leader in the food and beverage industry in Mexico. Bellissimo Foods is the leading provider of authentic pizza and Italian food products in the United States. The addition of Nascent expands Bellissimo’s distribution base into Mexico for its specialty pizza, Italian, and Mediterranean products.

Nascent Wine Company, Inc. is one of Baja Mexico’s largest food distributors, marketing and distributing over 2,000 national and proprietary brand food and non-food products to over 1,300 customers. Nascent plans to consolidate many of the smaller foodservice distributors in the Mexican food distribution market through acquisitions. Nascent currently has an exclusive distribution agreement with Miller Beer for Baja California, Mexico, and represents other major brands such as General Mills/Pillsbury Products, CORA Products, Avasoft Ice Cream, Ferrarelle Water, Nestle Candy, Haagen-Dazs and many others.

Bellissimo’s national partnership of distributors now comprises 41 distribution centers across the United States (including Alaska), Puerto Rico, and Mexico. Nascent Company trades on the OTC Bulletin Board, ticker symbol NCTW.OB. Nascent also supplies Central and South American customers via its Miami distribution center, Palermo Italian Foods.

Bellissimo Foods is the only national specialty distribution group that offers both leading national and international brands as well as world-sourced Bellissimo brands.
